PROFILE

I am a hard working, honest individual. I am a good timekeeper, always willing to learn new skills. I am friendly, helpful and polite, have a good sense of humour. I am able to work independently in busy environments and also within a team setting. I am outgoing and tactful, and able to listen effectively when solving problems.

Deadline-oriented collaborator focused on overseeing projects from concept through final delivery. I always seek to achieve a high standard in whatever work I undertake.

EMPLOYMENT HISTORY

Graphic Designer at Calouste Gulbenkian Museum, Lisbon

Aug 1998 - Present

With over 20 years of progressive experience in the field of Graphic Design, my professional history includes positions such as Head Graphic Designer at the Calouste Gulbenkian Museum and the alternative theater, Kind of Black Box.

My practice involves working with curators, artists, and designers from around the world to create a complete and unique visual presence to promote and accompany exhibitions. Having created visual identities for more than 200 exhibitions, he uses his vast experience to develop graphic solutions for galleries utilizing a variety of tools and managing installation teams, working in diverse museum projects with a strong voice as both a visual communicator and graphic designer.

This work includes a wide range of projects including publications such as catalogs, brochures, and artists' books as well as exhibition pamphlets, posters, banners, and illustrations.
